Permanent Injunction

The Court, having this day entered its Order on Default Judgment and Dismissing John Doe Defendants, (ECF No.24), finds that a permanent injunction is warranted because Defendant Dmitrii Iakovlev infringed Delta Faucet Company's ("Delta") valid trademarks, thus causing irreparable harm to Delta to which there is no adequate remedy at law. Furthermore, the balance of hardships weighs in favor of Delta, and an injunction protects the public interest. The Court now enters the following permanent injunction against Defendant Dmitrii Iakovlev. It is now hereby ordered, adjudged, and decreed that:

1. Delta has trademark registrations for DELTA® (U.S. Trademark Reg. Nos. 5,273,845; 2,583,761; 3,062,101; 2,586,604; 4,518,067; 0,668,880; 4,638,296) as well as a number of other federally registered trademarks (collectively, the "Delta Trademarks").

2. Defendant Dmitrii Iakovlev, as well as his agents, owners, servants, employees, and all persons or entities in active concert or participation with Mr. Iakovlev (collectively, the "Enjoined Parties"), are permanently enjoined from:
 - a. advertising or selling all Delta products or any products bearing the Delta Trademarks through any storefront on www.amazon.com ("Amazon"), including, but not limited to, the Amazon storefront known as "TechnoProffs" (with Merchant ID number A3BGLOAE0PD7S4);
 - b. advertising or selling, through any medium (including all Internet and non-Internet channels), all Delta products or any products bearing the Delta Trademarks; and
 - c. importing, exporting, manufacturing, producing, distributing, circulating, selling, offering to sell, advertising, promoting, or displaying any Delta products or products bearing any of the Delta Trademarks.
3. The Enjoined Parties shall destroy or return to Delta all Delta products or products bearing Delta Trademarks in the Enjoined Parties' possession, custody, or control, including but not limited to those housed in Amazon's warehouses.
4. Under Rule 65(d)(2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, this Permanent Injunction is binding upon the following persons who receive actual notice of it: the parties, the parties' officers, agents, servants, employees, and attorneys, and other persons who are in active concert or participation with the parties or the parties' officers, agents, servants, employees, and attorneys.

5. The Court shall retain jurisdiction of this matter in law and in equity for the purpose of enforcing and/or adjudicating claims in violation of its Judgment and Permanent Injunction. Any such matters shall be raised by noticed motion.

SO ORDERED.
